EDUCATOR SHOES

FOR MEN

Put your feet into EDUCATOR SHOES and you forget corns, bunions, and all foot ills. They disappear whence they came. And your foot bones straighten out into their natural shape with just the space they need to flex and relax as you call them into play. No extra ugly looseness—for the Educator is made scientifically to conform to the precise shape of the natural foot.

The Educator is handsome, with a "Custom Made" look. Always the same shape season after season. You never have to "break in" a new pair.

They come in kid and dull calf leathers and in Bals and Oxfords.

PROMISED FOR THE PLAYHOUSES

Ruth Van

Miss Ruth Van, member of the World's Fair Stock Company.

OPERA HOUSE

Not for years has a comedy won such favor in America as has "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." The story of the little old lady and her first taste of life in New York has been so cleverly adapted for the stage that it has won favor with all lovers of genuine clean comedy. "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" will be seen for the first time in Honolulu at the Hawaiian opera house tonight.

Virginia Brissac will play "Aunt Mary" and those who have seen her do the part on the mainland have praised her highly. They have gone so far as to say that she is never more lovable than when she portrays the part of the quaint "Aunt Mary." Jas. Dillon will be given splendid opportunities in this production. He will do the part of the nephew whose extravagance leads Aunt Mary to visit New York. Evelyn Hamby will be given a larger part in this play than in any of the others staged by the "World's Fair Stock Company" in Honolulu this season. It is through her clever management that the troubles between Dillon and his aunt are smoothed over. Margaret and Howard Nugent, Ferdinand Muniar, all have good places in the cast.

Everyone who saw Virginia Brissac in "The Girl from Rectoria" was delighted with the song and dance she and James Dillon gave. The announcement then that she will introduce a catchy little interpolation in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary" should be welcome.

The plot of her comedy is woven around Aunt Mary and her nephew, whose extravagance exasperates her to such an extent that she constantly threatens to cut off his allowance. Things go from bad to worse, and finally the old lady announces that she can no longer supply the young man with the funds he seems to need while living in the city. As soon as the announcement reaches New York the friends of the young man scheme to bring about a reconciliation. A wire is sent to Aunt Mary announcing that her nephew is seriously ill with the measles and that her presence in the city would be desirable. "Aunt Mary" is equal to the call and, much against the advice of her two old servants takes the train for New York.

She is met at the train by her nephew's friends, who are prepared to entertain her royally. She is given her first taste of city life and after many enjoyable experiences returns to her home in the country. While there she becomes ill and fretful because she cannot have everything she had while in New York. Her servants fear for her sanity when she goes to bed with the handle of the ice cream freezer and "makes believe" that it is the crank of an automobile. She substitutes many of the homely little things in her country home with luxuries of the city and finally when she becomes so ill that these no longer satisfy her her nephew is summoned. The ending is happy. "Aunt Mary" does not die, her nephew is not cut off and he marries the young woman with whom he has been in love during his stay in New York.

Newsboys' Matinee
Next Wednesday evening will see the Star-Bulletin newsboys out in force to the performance of "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary." Mr. Wray and Miss Brissac having invited the youngsters to be their guests for the evening and laugh themselves almost to death at the peculiar predicaments in which Aunt Mary finds herself. "Newsies" to the number of about 60 will be on hand to worship at the shrine of Miss Brissac.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE BIJOU

The Bijou theater will, beginning with this evening, be thrown open to vaudeville in connection with a pleasing program of photoplays and recent comedies.

Miss Cecile Lemaire, a talented singer and balladist, who has achieved much fame along the coast in cabaret and cafe performances, has been engaged for the week, and will hold forth at this popular house. The young artist is pronounced a vocalist of more than passing merit. She has an extensive repertoire of late and popular songs at her command. Pictures of a high order, many of them being from the big studios, are to be displayed at the three houses under the direction of the Consolidated Amusement Company.

While vaudeville will be the drawing card at the Bijou, a program of amateur acts is now in preparation which is guaranteed to pack the Bijou theater Friday evening. Several of the more beautiful colored films, the late product of the bigger companies, are to be featured at the Empire theater. Several western dramas of intense interest are on the list.

Preparations are now under way for the reception of the twenty or more performers to arrive here the last of the month in the Monte Carter Musical Comedy Company. The "Dancing Chicks" are said to have been recruited from the ranks of the top-notchers along the Coast. Carter, as a Hebrew comedian is declared by critics to have few equals. The company is coming to Honolulu prepared to present a score of light musical comedies and skits which have been the rage on the mainland. The organization includes several principals who are rated as clever entertainers.

Schofield Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Wireline]

PORT SHAFER, Sept. 22.—Lieutenant N. W. Campanole was host on Sunday for a large party of his friends on the yacht Hawaii. The point of departure for the cruise was Alakea wharf, and after a fine sail the yacht entered Pearl Harbor and later anchored and the crowd returned by rail. Lieut. Campanole's guests included many from Honolulu as well as officers and ladies from Shafter.

S. M. Damon has again evidenced his generosity toward the Shafter garrison. This time his friendly interest has taken the form of a gift of a large number of ferns and palms to be taken from his greenhouses in Moanalua and to be used in decorating the sub-exchange building near the carline terminus. This will add greatly to the attractiveness of the already popular resort and make of it a place where waiting for the cars will be a pleasure rather than a discomfort as was the shed built by the traction company.

Beginning with today the Second Infantry will undertake a series of field problems in conjunction with D battery, 1st Field Artillery (Happkins) and Captain Fechet's troop of the 4th Cavalry. These exercises will be held in the vicinity of Red Hill, and will continue for four days, being, in fact, a continuous problem throughout that time, and will take up both the offensive and defensive during its various phases.

Company M, Second Infantry, defeated Company I, Engineers, in a baseball game on Saturday on the post diamond.

The game, for excitement, ranked high as an entertainment. The final score was 5 to 4, after 12 innings of see-saw that kept everybody on edge. Murray and Lambert were the battery for the winners.

Captain B. H. Watkins, in charge of construction work for the cantonment, has been advised that the lumber for his building operations will arrive in Honolulu before the 25th instant. Immediate delivery to the building site will be effected and two months, it is expected, will see the work practically completed.

FIVE MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

When "Pape's Diapiesin" reaches stomach all indigestion, Gas and Sourness disappear

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble, has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it—advertisement.

Tuberculosis caused 31 deaths in Honolulu during the months of July and August, and of these 19 were Hawaiians. These figures are shown in the statistics compiled by the territorial board of health. Nine other fatal cases of the dreaded white plague were among other nationalities. Five of the deaths occurred at the Leahi Home, two of these being cases in which hope had been given up before they were removed to the home, and the other three in the last stages of the disease, though they lingered for varying periods after removal to the institution.

The kicker is bad enough, but he has several advantages over the man who whines.
